The Rosemalers from Sacramento who attended classes at Camp Norge, Sept. 25-27. They studied Telemark, Rogaland, and Vest-Agder styles of Rosemaling, with teachers Julie Anne, Kay White, and Cheryl Seath. It was the 50th anniversary class (two classes per year for 25 years) and Penny J. Knudsen has been coordinating and bringing together these classes at Camp Norge since inception, much to the great enjoyment of the attendees. (She is first row, second from the right end.)

FROM ROALD AMUNDSEN LODGE 6-48 PRESIDENT CAROL FRANCIS:

What a storm!

For en storm! In Norwegian, that is, what a storm! The English and Norwegian expressions are similar! I was studying at the Sac State University library on October 13th, the scheduled day of our last lodge meeting, when I got calls, are we REALLY having a meeting tonight? Members were without power, braving flooded driveways, and generally concerned about going out on such a wild night. Then the lights at the University went out, and I thought, this is wild, so I called a few members, canceled the meeting, and formed a quick phone tree to get the word out. The Hannons had been without power all day, but were making the refreshments at another location, so Joe, LaRena and I ended up having a delicious supper of beautiful open faced sandwiches and pumpkin cake. Then in walked two long time members, Susan and Margaret Lemmon, looking forward to Beth Solheim's genealogy program (which we will reschedule). I was glad the three of us were there; we had a delightful visit with the Lemmons, and saw a detailed genealogy chart of their uncle.

Our Lutefisk Dinner was a tremendous success, with almost 100 members and guests, and several new members signing up. Thanks to Ann Sandner and Jessica Brown for chairing the dinner, Cindy Hayashi for handling the tickets and reservations, LaRena Hannon for doing the decorations, and Joan Armstrong Allen for making calls to get workers. I will let Ann Sandner thank all the work crews, as we had excellent help with setup, cooking and cleanup. There is a special place in my heart for the people who stay until cleanup is done and everything is put away. It was great to see so many new helpers this time; please see Ann's article. People even said the lutefisk was very good! Personally I liked the meatballs.

When I came into the lodge in 1980, we had a very active youth group. In fact, one of my first lodge jobs was Youth Director, and I took several groups to Camp Norge in the winter for snow trips, along with dear friend Cindy Paulson Hayashi. We have a great bunch of young people in our lodge right now, with many scholarship winners to language camp in recent years. One of my dreams as President has been to increase the participation of our young people in our lodge activities, and to also resurrect the Junior Lodge. We have a new Youth Director, Jessica Brown, and are planning our first activity, a trip to Camp Norge on February 5-7, 2010. The weather gods have control of whether there is snow at Alta or not, but we will go find snow further up Highway 80 if needed. If your young people are interested, please contact Jessica at 916-606-4858, or jessicabrown14@yahoo.com.

Are you planning to attend our annual Vikingfest on November 21st from 10 am to 2 pm at the lodge? Start your Christmas shopping early, and eat delicious Norwegian foods! Our annual Julebord, or Christmas Dinner, and Santa Lucia pageant will be held on Saturday, December 12th; get your reservations in early as this event sells out yearly (flier in Navigator). Also we have the Family Christmas Party on Sunday, December 20th from 2-4 pm at the Carmichael Park Clubhouse (see flier). Please be sure to RSVP to Carol Lee Solheim for this so that we can have gifts for the kids; also we have vests and bunads for a picture, but need sizes. Boys need dark pants and a white shirt; girls need a white blouse.

We will initiate new members at the next lodge meeting on November 10th, including anyone accepted that night. Upcoming Cultural Programs include: Nancy Ottum, "Paganism in old Norwegian Society" on November 10th; and Florence Smith, "Norwegian Christmas Foods" on December 8th. Håper vi sees snart! I hope to see you soon! klem (hugs), Carol

TRIBUTE TO JOHN REPPE-FISCHER

By Pearl Lemkuil

John Reppe-Fischer passed away in Sacramento in early September, 2009. He was a member of the Roald Amundsen lodge for many years. John was president of the lodge in 1999. He really enjoyed the Norwegian culture and foods, especially Torsk and Lutefisk. He was active in our lodge, attending meetings, dinners, and event until it was hard for him to walk. His wife Gerry accompanied him until she experience medical problems and she passed away in 2007.

Before retiring, John owned an upholstery business on Fulton Avenue. He was very good a t upholstering furniture. John was a very friendly, giving person, always trying to be helpful. He is greatly missed by all who new him.

SIDEBARS FROM THE EDITOR...

Norway enjoys the world's highest quality of life and has once again been rated as the best country in the world to live in by the UN Development Program. Canada was listed fourth, well ahead of the United States which was in 13th place. The program's annual Human Development Index takes into account life expectancy, literacy, school enrolment and per capita gross domestic product in 182 countries.

Norway was followed by Australia and Iceland on the list, which drew on statistics dating from 2007, before Iceland was hit hard in global economic crisis. Canada's life expectancy was also among the highest with a child at birth expecting to live up to 80 years.

The District 6 Newsletter for Oct – Jan (Sons of Norway District 6 News) can be found on the district's internet site: www.sofn6.com. There are interesting articles there...

The genealogy program that was to be held at the October meeting, which was rained out, will be re-scheduled for either the February or March meeting.

Here are some other events from around the area (call to confirm exact info):

JOHN REPPE-FISCHER, R.I.P.

As we reported briefly last month, John Reppe-Fischer passed away on September 6, 2009 and was buried at East Lawn Cemetery beside his wife of 40 years, Gerry Fischer.

John was born the youngest of nine children in Hendricks, Minn., in 1933. While he was still a young boy his family moved to Sioux Falls, S.D., where he married and started a family. In 1963 he brought his wife and four children out west to settle in Sacramento, Calif. Early in life, John showed an interest in his father's profession and followed in his footsteps as a painter, specializing in murals and traditional Norwegian Rosemaling. John eventually established himself as a permanent fixture along on Fulton Avenue, first as a car salesman and later as owner of Fulton Avenue Upholstery. In that capacity he once recovered the chairs at the lodge.

Always proud of his Norwegian heritage, he belonged to the Sons of Norway and was our lodge president in 1999. John to brought joy to others with his humorous stories of the "good 'ol days" and loved to cook for his many relatives and friends. John opened his home to many children and rescued pets over the years. John is survived by his sisters Kay Vigna and Georgia Brandtz, his children Vicki J. Weyuker, Rebecca L. Rivers, and Brian J. Burnap, his grandchildren Jagon Noggaj, Jennifer McCann, Shyvonne Buchanan, and Erica Cunningham, and three great-grandchildren.

We remember John for his many contributions to our lodge.

NORWEGIAN POLITICIAN ON THE HOT SEAT FOR NOBEL SELECTION

Thorbjørn Jagland, a former Prime Minister of Norway and chairman of the Norwegian Peace Prize Committee, reportedly was responsible for steering the award to US President Barack Obama. The son of a shipyard welder and a cook, Mr. Jagland was active in the Norwegian Labor Party. In his 1990 book My European Dream, he provided his vision for a united Europe. More recently, he has warned against Islamophobia and anti-Islamic fear-mongering in Europe.

Mr. Jagland believes in, among other things, free health care, as every Norwegian enjoys. A recent poll found that about 43% of Norwegians think Mr. Obama deserved the award. Siv Jensen, leader of the opposition Progress Party, nonetheless called for Mr. Jagland to step down from the Nobel committee chairmanship because, she feels, it is a conflict of interest for him to run the Council of Europe and also head the Nobel committee. Others feel that there were more worthy candidates, such as Chinese activist Hu Jia and Zimbabwean Prime Minister Morgan Tsvangirai.

PRESIDENT CAROL ANALYZES NORWEGIAN ELECTION

Norway held elections on September 14, 2009, for their Storting, or Parliament. Results gave a very narrow majority of 86 seats for what is called the red/green coalition (Labor, Socialist Left, Center), with 83 seats to the conservative parties (Progress, Christian Democrat, Liberal, Conservative).

Labor Party (Arbeiderparti)	36.4%	64 seats	+2.7%
Progress Party (Fremskrittsparti)	22.9%	41 seats	+0.9%
Conservative (Høyre)	17.2%	30 seats	+3.1%
Socialist Left (Sosialistisk Venstre)	6.2%	11 seats	-2.6%
Center (Senter)	6.2%	11 seats	-0.3%
Christian Democrat (Kristelig Folkeparti)	5.5%	10 seats	-1.2%
Liberal (Venstre)	3.9%	2 seats	-2.0%
Red (røde)	2.3%	0 seats	+0.1%

As expected, the Progress and Conservative Parties showed gains, and the Socialist Left lost seats. The strong showing of the largest Labor Party saved the ruling coalition, and will increase its influence in the coalition. The three ruling parties disagree on a number of points but have had an effective cooperation, and were helped by the strong Norwegian economy in relation to other European countries. Labor supports European Union membership, Center (mainly farming) opposes European Union membership very strongly, and Socialist Left wants out of NATO. They have worked out environmental and social help policies effectively. They have also used more oil revenue (6%) to keep the Norwegian economy healthy than the usual 4%, with the rest to pensions and saving.

If the conservative parties had gotten a majority of seats, they would have faced a mess in forming a coalition. Only the Conservative Party was willing to work with the Progress Party, which is an anti-immigrant party as a major point. Christian Democrats and Liberals were unwilling to serve with the Progress Party. This may have influenced voters to stick with the red/green coalition and basic parliamentary stability. However, the ruling coalition cannot consider this a strong mandate, and must include issues from the conservative side to maintain an effective working parliamentary cooperation for the next four years.

This is my own analysis, although I have read a number of commentaries. Carol Francis
